Laura McFall

Director, RSNO Chorus Academy Dundee

Laura McFall is a musician, educator and choral leader, and is known for her dedication to advancing vocal arts and music education. She holds a Master's degree in Music Performance from the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, where she specialised in Vocal Performance under the tutelage of Wilma MacDougall. She was selected as a semi-finalist in both the Charles Wood Song Competition and the Mozart Singing Competition in London. She also performed in many external recitals with organisations such as Live Music Now, Westbourne Music and National Galleries Scotland.

Laura is a skilled Kodály practitioner, choral leader and singing teacher, and holds a Post Graduate Diploma of Education from the RCS. Her professional experience is extensive and varied, including teaching positions with Sistema Scotland, the RCS Juniors and Seniors, the National Youth Choir of Scotland and Northern Ireland, Queen's University Belfast and Dunedin Consort. She is currently Primary Music Coordinator at Jordanhill School, Director of the RSNO Chorus Academy Dundee and Musicianship Lecturer at the RCS.

Laura's inclusive philosophy is evident in her work as she strives to make singing an integral part of life for individuals and communities alike. Throughout her career, she has remained committed to her vision of enhancing music education and performance.

Euan Gow

Accompanist

Euan is a vastly experienced musician, pianist and accompanist, having worked in Secondary schools for 45 years as a Principal Teacher of Music, Principal Teacher of Guidance and Assistant Head Teacher. He has worked with the National Youth Choir of Scotland (NYCOS) for 15 years, holding the post of accompanist with NYCOS Dundee and NYCOS Angus. Euan has also been involved in NYCOS National Choir auditions for many years. He was delighted to be approached to be involved with RSNO

Dundee Chorus Academy, and is excited about the ambitious and wide-ranging plans there are for the choir going forward.
